

Report Growing Crisis In Africa

Patronize Our Advertisers — Their Advertising in this paper shows that they appreciate your trade.

Jackson Advocate

GOOD CONDUCT
WILL ALWAYS GAIN
YOU RESPECT.
Watch Your Public
Conduct.

VOLUME XIII—NUMBER 4

JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI, SATURDAY, NOV. 22, 1952

PRICE TEN CENTS

SEE WORLD WAR OF COLORED-WHITE RACE BREWING

State Boys And Girls Ready For 4-H Club Round-Up

Winners In 4-H Club Projects Conducted By Negro Boys And Girls In All Sections Of State Get Prizes In Annual Round-Up Here Monday And Tuesday

Prof. Laurence C. Jones, Founder Of Piney Wood School Guest Speaker

Jackson, Miss.—Project winners for 1952 in negro 4-H Club work in Mississippi will be honored here November 24-25 at the annual State Negro 4-H Club Round-Up, sponsored by the Jackson Chamber of Commerce.

The 165 boys and girls who are county and state winners will receive medals, $50 bonds and other awards Monday evening during a banquet and program at Jim Hill High School. Speaker will be President L. C. Jones of Piney Woods School.

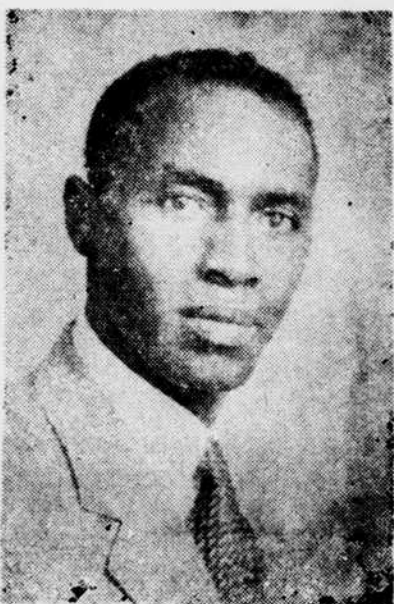

An educational tour of Jackson on Tuesday will include such points as the State Capitol, Swift Poultry Plant at Farmers' Centenary Market, the zoo, the Coca-Cola Bottling Company, Mississippi Products Company and Jackson College.

Winners were announced by Albert Dishmon, negro girls' 4-H Club agent; G. C. Cypress, negro boys' 4-H Club agent; and Thomas M. Moman, Jr., Assistant negro boys' 4-H Club agent. These Agricultural Extension Service workers have headquarters in Jackson.

State winners, their awards and achievements follow, by projects: Boys' achievement—J. L. Manning, of Pike County. He will receive a pen and pencil set and certificate of honor from the Ford Motor Company.

A 4-H Club member for six years, the boys' achievement winner has completed nine projects. This year he carried beef, corn and swine. This year he supplied 1,000 pounds of pork for his family and sold 27 pigs.

Girls' achievement—Annie B. Barron, of Covington County, pen and pencil set and certificate of honor from Ford Motor Company. Annie has had a successful poultry project for several years and (Continued On Page Six)

Much of the success of the program of the Annual 4-H Club Round-up here next Monday and Tuesday will rest with Prof. G. C. Cypress (above) of Jackson, State Agent, Agricultural Extension Service, in charge of Negro Boys 4-H Club activities.

4-H Club Advisory Committee To Meet Here Monday

The State 4-H Club advisory committee will meet here at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon in the College Park Clubhouse with Albert Dishmon, Negro Girls Club agent; Thomas M. Moman Jr., Assistant Negro Boys' club agent and G. C. Cypress, State Negro (Continued On Page Five)

AME Church Hold Fourth In Series Of Eight Dist. Annual Conferences In Leland

Dr. J. H. Hall Of Ark. Delivers Message

Leland, Mississippi was the seat of the Sixty-third Session of the Central Mississippi Annual Conference of the Eighth Episcopal District of the African Methodist Episcopal Church. The Conference was sessioned at St. James AME Church, Reverend J. S. Gleese, host Pastor, and the Right Reverend Carey A. Gibbs, Presiding Prelate.

On Tuesday night, prior to the opening session, the welcome program which was presented commenced what later proved a successful (Continued On Page Five)

National Body Lauds Atlanta Business Group

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 17.—The Atlanta Negro Business League was lauded by the National Negro Business League at its annual convention in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Geneva Haugabrooks, first vice president of the local body; C. T. Perkins, executive secretary of the Atlanta chapter and W. H. "Chief" Aiken, National Board Member represented Atlanta, J. L. Wolfe, president.

Citations of the Local League came for (1) Increasing its membership; (2) the stand of the organization on the plan of improvement (Continued On Page Eight)

Actors Equity To Get Race Relations Prize

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The Actors Equity Association is slated for its first race relations award by the Committee of Interracial Relations of Christians and Jews, Tuesday, Dec. 2, at the Waldorf Astoria hotel.

Noble Sissle, president of the Negro Actors Guild, announced that the award will be made to Actors Equity for breaking discrimination in many Washington, D. C. theatres.

"The greatest victory for our group," stated Sissle, "was won when the Actors Equity Association (Continued On Page Eight)

Pike County Negro Democrats Meet Elect Officers

McCOMB, Miss., Nov. 18.—(Special)—The Negro Democrats of Pike County held a meeting last week in the Burgland High School auditorium in which the national election and many points of local interest was discussed.

A county-wide council was formed (Continued On Page Two)

Tuskegee Prof. Gets Cancer Grant

NEW YORK — A grant-in-aid amounting to $3500 was given to a Tuskegee scientist by the American Cancer Society, it was announced this week. Recipient of the grant is Dr. James H. M. Henderson, research associate of the Carver Foundation at the institute.

Dr. Henderson's work will include investigation of abnormal growth in plants which basically (Continued On Page Four)

Piney Woods, Miss. — (Special) — The above is a picture of Prof. Laurence C. Jones, Founder and Principal of Piney Woods Country Life School here who will be the principal speaker for the Annual Negro 4-H Club Round-up November 24-25 in Jackson. Prof. Jones will speak at 7:30 Monday night in the Auditorium of Jim Hill School.

Federal Jury Summons Klan Chief In Probe

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 17.—Bill Hendrix, grand dragon of the Florida Ku Klux Klan has been subpoenaed to appear before a Federal Grand Jury probing the bombings of Negro, Jewish and Catholic properties at Miami.

J. J. Elliott, a special investigator (Continued On Page Six)

Community Chest Drive Lagging

Negro Businessmen Ignore Responsibility

The drive funds for the local Community Chest being directed by the Territorial Division which is under the direction of Rev. A. L. Rice, who is serving his third consecutive time as chairman of the division, is lagging far behind (Continued On Page Five)

CRISIS IN TWO PARTS OF GREAT AFRICAN CONTINENT CONTINUES AS FEAR OF WIDENING CONFLICT GROWS

JACKSON ADVOCATE GETS SPECIAL LONDON REPORT

London, Eng., Nov. 15.—(Trans-Atlantic Topics) — The crisis in two parts of the great African continent continues. Top-level experts in London have been briefed in secret by the colonial authorities on action to be taken "in certain circumstances."

These circumstances are, in fact, those which would develop should there be a sudden dramatic uprising in other territories than troubled Kenya and equally turbulent South Africa.

For it is feared that the disputes in those two crisis zones may spread, either of its own impetus, or through the action of "agitators." (Continued On Page Two)

Virginius Dabney Fears U. S. Supreme Court Decision May Outlaw School Segregation

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 17.—(DSN)—Virginius Dabney, Editor of the Richmond Times-Dispatch, famed for his writings on the Negro problem in the south, seems afraid that the coming decision of the U. S. Supreme court will bring to an end segregation by law in the south's public school system.

Writing in the November 8th edition of the Saturday Evening Post, Mr. Dabney points out the "most far-reaching decision affecting interracial relations to come down from the United States Supreme Court may be announced in the near future."

The U. S. Supreme Court has (Continued On Page Six)

Dedicates New Elementary Bldg.

Edwards, Miss., Nov. 17.—(Special)—Dedication services for the new elementary building of the Edwards Junior High School were held at the Edwards School, November 16, 1952 at 2 p.m.

Music was furnished by the Edwards Junior High School Glee Club. Scripture and the dedicatory prayer were offered by Reverend C. L. West, pastor of the (Continued On Page Seven)

5th Annual Grand Conclave United Order Friendship Of America Being Held In G'wood This Week

Dr. Walter S. Davis, President Tenn. State College Guest Speaker

GREENWOOD, Miss., Nov. 18.—(DSN)—The United Order of Friendship of America is holding its fifth annual Grand Conclave here this week, Nov. 16-21 inclusive at New Zion Baptist Church and the early indications, in keeping with the phenomenal growth (Continued On Page Five)

New Diplomatic Posts Likely For Negroes Under Gen. Ike

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(Global)—The probability that a Negro might be named Ambassador to Ethiopia loomed prominent this week following a report from Addis Ababa that the Imperial Government there would like very much to have the United States represented there by a member of the Race.

A spokesman in Ethiopia, who (Continued On Page Two)

Petitioners Seek To Bar Sparkman

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—An attempt to bar Senator John Sparkman (D) Ala., from the Senate got underway in Chicago Sunday as 6,000 signatures were obtained on petitions circulated by the National Negro council.

The council seeks Sparkman's ouster through the invoking of an article of the constitution covering "disorderly conduct" of Senators.

The council maintains Sparkman was elected in 1948 under a "white supremacy" emblem, thus violating constitutional guarantees of franchise for 500,000 taxpaying Negroes in Alabama.

Edgar Brown, president of the Council, will visit 32 states in an (Continued On Page Two)

State Y-Teen Conference Meet At Bettye Marino Branch YWCA On N. Fraish St. Meeting Called Great Success

The Mississippi State Y-Teen Conference met here Saturday at the Bettye C. Marino Branch YWCA on North Fraish street in what was afterwards described as the most outstanding meeting ever held by the group.

The conference with the general purpose of furthering the work and organization of Y-Teen clubs in the states was conducted around the theme "Living our faith through our purpose."

The Y-Teen goals are: To grow as a Person. To grow in Friendship with all people. To grow in the knowledge and love of God.

The program for the day included a welcome program, club clinics, luncheon, a fellowship par- (Continued On Page Eight)

INDIA'S DELEGATE WARNS UNITED NATIONS ASSEMBLY OF POSSIBLE WAR BETWEEN WHITE AND COLORED RACES OVER THE CONTINUED WORLD POLICY OF WHITE SUPREMACY

South African Delegate Charges "Outside Interference" As Assembly Hears Of Race Prejudice And Segregation Laws Of His Country

Clarksdale, Miss., Nov. 17.—(Special)—The above is the picture of R. L. Drew, of Clarksdale, the Worthy Grand Master of the United Order of Friendship of America, which is holding its Fifth Annual Grand Conclave, this week, Nov. 16-21 in Greenwood, Miss.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—(DSN)—The delegate for India, Mdme V. Pandet, sister prime minister Nehru last week warned the United Nations assembly of the possibility of a world war between the colored and white races, resulting from a continuation of the world policy of white supremacy.

The delegate from India gave her warning during the consideration of the question of a United Nations investigation of race relations in the union of South Africa where the natives and other colored people among them many Indian natives are being subject to the most violent type of racial prejudice, discrimination, and persecution under the segregation laws enacted by the South African government now dominated by the aging Prime minister, Dr. Malan, (Continued On Page Eight)

Case Of Negro Convicted Of 'Rape By Looking' Going To U. S. Supreme Court

YANCEYVILLE, N. C., Nov. 18.—(DSN)—The case of Mack Ingram, a Negro farmer, father of nine children, convicted of statutory rape of a young white woman, whom he is alleged to have "looked at" from a distance of seventy-five feet while she was walking a dusty country road is going to the United (Continued On Page Seven)

13 Bishops Urge Ending Race Bars In Theological School In Tenn.

ATLANTA, Nov. 17.—Thirteen Episcopal bishops are calling today for an end to race bars at the (Continued On Page Eight)

Pearl Bailey To Marry White Drummer With Duke Ellington's Band

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—(DSN)—Pearl Bailey, the voluptuous brown skinned blues singer who had her bouts with newsmen several months ago as she fought off charges of dope addiction is again in the news in a big way as word reached here that she is to marry handsome wavy-haired Louis Bellson, Jr., white drummer with Duke Ellington's band this week. The word of the impending (Continued On Page Eight) marriage was received here Monday from London where Miss Bailey is playing a limited engagement in London's smart Colony Club.

WHITE ACTORS HUNTING TALENT IN NEGRO CLUB ARRESTED FOR VIOLATING SEGREGATION LAWS

Race Violence In South Africa Takes 25 Lives

DURBAN, South Africa—Negro arsonists set the torch to a Roman Catholic church in the Port City of East London in a renewal of the racial violence that has taken a toll of 25 lives over the week (Continued On Page Seven)

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 18.—(DSN)—A group of white actors headed by Zachary Scott and his wife who afterwards told Municipal Judge Edwin Babylon that they were on a talent hunt was arrested here Monday for violating the city's racial segregation laws. Specifically the white group was charged with congregating in a Negro saloon, being seated at a table in a Negro saloon, drinking alcoholic beverages, and mingling with Negroes. The white group was arrested (Continued On Page Four)

NEGRO CANDIDATE DID PRETTY GOOD IN RECENT ELECTION

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 17.—(DSN)—Negro candidates for office in the November 4 election did pretty good although the group as a whole remained almost solidly in the Democratic column. A run down on the results throughout the country shows the following winners according to cities.

NEW YORK — Adam C. Powell, representative to Congress for fifth term; Atty. Julius A. Archibald, first Negro elected to state senate; Leslie T. Turner, elected to assembly; Hu-lan Jack, re-elected to assembly; and Atty. James C. Thomas, elected to assembly. Bertram Baker (Brooklyn) re-elected. All are Democratic.

Saturday Evening Post Article Cites Remarkable Improvement In Mississippi Negro Education

The remarkable improvement that the people of Mississippi have made—and are still making—in their schools for Negroes is outlined by Henry F. and Katharine Pringle in the current (November 22nd) issue of The Saturday Evening Post.

Their article, "Mississippi Gives Her Colored Kids A Break," reports that few months pass without a brand-new colored school opening somewhere in the state. They say that the contrast between the new $62,000 red-brick, modern-style building in Leflore County, where Luther and Cozetta Buckley are teaching this fall, and (Continued On Page Eight)

USO-Camp Shows Provide Varied Entertainment For GIs Overseas

NEW YORK — U. S. service-men abroad are being provided varied entertainment by USO-Camp Shows. These shows feature vocalists, dancers, comedians, musicians (Continued On Page Five)